KACRAO Scholarship Recipients Have Been Selected!

Amber M. Saueressig from Burlington High School. Amber plans to attend Fort Hays State University.

Kathleen E. Murray from Blue Valley North. Kathleen plans to attend Johnson County Community College.

If you think about it and have room, bring a lawn chair for Wednesday night's conference event!

KACRAO 2005 Conference Evening Activities

If you liked 'Grease' where the gang would get together for great food, great music and great times, just hanging out, you will not want to miss Wednesday night's KACRAO. You will be inspired, entertained and have a full belly. If you think about it and have room, bring a lawn chair. If you do not bring a lawn chair, no big deal, we will find you a spot to sit!

Now Thursday evening will be spent with some down home folk who are known throughout the globe. They have performed at Carnegie Hall, all around the U.S.

and will be in China on tour next year. They also have connections with a famous TV cowboy. Ev was his Side Kick when there was only black and white TV. Course, Ev was also friends with Moses and Custer. DO NOT MISS THE FUN!!!

3/31/2005—Washington, DC

Angela Peterson has been elected President-elect of the Board of Directors of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO).

"Ange Peterson has served AACRAO as a consummate professional in advancing the cause of higher education," said AACRAO Executive Director, Jerome Sullivan. "We are honored to have her leadership and experience as we confront the challenges facing higher education today."

Angela Peterson is Director of Admission and Enrollment Services at Pittsburg State University in Pittsburg, Kansas. She currently serves AACRAO's Board of Directors as Vice President for Admissions and Enrollment Management. Peterson has also been an active member of numerous AACRAO committees and has delivered presentations at the AACRAO Annual Meeting and the AACRAO SEM Conference. She is a contributing author of two AACRAO publications, Gen Xers Return to College and The SEM Revolution.

AACRAO is a nonprofit, voluntary, professional association of more than 9,000 higher education admissions and registration professionals who represent approximately 2,300 institutions in more than 35 countries. The mission of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers (AACRAO) is to provide professional development, guidelines and voluntary standards to be used by higher education officials regarding the best practices in records management, admissions, enrollment management, administrative information technology and student services. It also provides a forum for discussion regarding policy initiation and development, interpretation and implementation at the institutional level and in the global educational community.
